Understanding what makes people get along has always been a passion of mine. This led me not only to work with people in extreme life circumstances, such as prisoners and terminal patients, but also to complete a master's in Conflict Resolution. Life is also a great teacher, and I have lovingly learned many valuable lessons about resolving conflicts through my interactions with my young daughter, Irene. Throughout these experiences, I could not help but notice the universal truths that motivate people to get along. I utilize these truths to increase team effectiveness and personal wellbeing for people and companies.

I am a communication coach at IESE Business School. I also offer effective team-playing workshops, leadership coaching, keynote speeches, and event facilitation in English, Spanish and Portuguese to international brands including; eBay, Henkel, HP, King and PayPal.

THE GIFT OF GROWTH

360-DEGREE TEAM FEEDBACK

This two-day workshop creates a safe environment of trust for teams to communicate with transparency.

It explores the ground principles of constructive feedback. The exchange of information, mutual understanding and learning within your team will increase.

Positive feedback gives us the determination and skill set to continue to grow.

Without constructive feedback and an understanding of what to improve— we cannot see the growth potential.

Give feedback without causing resistance and you'll receive it without getting defensive.

Each team member will create an individual action plan to implement the feedback they've received.

Learn and implement a powerful new model that allows your team to excel at feedback.

I found my love for words when I did my first master's in Philology, the science of language. As a priest, I dedicated a multitude of hours to communication optimization with others. This allowed me to identify specific patterns in order to determine what people want and need to hear in the most effective manner possible. Today, I use my expertise to train teams to implement and integrate these effective patterns that enable them to give and take straight-up feedback.

I am a communication coach at IESE Business School. I also offer effective team-playing workshops, leadership coaching, keynote speeches, and event facilitation in English, Spanish and Portuguese to international brands including; eBay, Henkel, HP, King and PayPal.
